

VALUE-BASED PROCUREMENT

Partnering for patient-centric, sustainable health care

4th European Value-Based Procurement Conference

Working together on sustainable health systems;
focus on people, prosperity and planet

Brussels, 15 December 2022

DRAFT AGENDA

Supporting partners

Preliminary overview of confirmed speakers. Many more to follow soon!

- Hamish Laing – Swansea University and Value-Based Health & Care Academy
How for medtech suppliers to succeed in partnering with health systems
- Sophie Carlier – Ministere des Solidarites et de la Sante (DGOS)
Procurement contributing to the sustainability and competitive advantage of French hospitals
- Veronique Bertrand – UniHA cooperative des acheteurs hospitaliers
Challenges and difficulties when implementing a VBP approach
- Ion Arrizabalaga – AQUAS Catalunya
On behalf of Bellvitge University Hospital, Barcelona featuring key lessons and results from the Ritmcore PPI project on patients using an implantable pacemaker
- Lauren Field – NHS Supply Chain
On behalf of the University Hospitals of North Midlands featuring key lessons and results on the CAUTI project reducing catheter associated urinary tract infections
- Richard Charter – Alira Health
On behalf of ANZICS, the Australian and New Zealand Intensive Care Society, featuring a beginners guide to improve sustainability in the ICU
- Hans Bax – European VBP Community of Practice
The future evolution of the VBP Community of Practice to support improving patient outcomes for the money spent
- Ingmar de Gooijer
Conference host and moderator