

VALUE-BASED PROCUREMENT

Partnering for patient-centric, sustainable health care

4th European Value-Based Procurement Conference

Working together on sustainable health systems;
focus on people, prosperity and planet

Brussels, 15 December 2022

DRAFT AGENDA

Supporting partners

Preliminary overview of confirmed speakers (by alphabetical order). More to soon follow!

- Ion Arrizabalaga – AQUAS Catalunya
Introducing the Bellvitge University Hospital, Barcelona featuring the results and key lessons from the Ritmocore project on remote monitoring of patients using an implantable pacemaker
- Hans Bax – European VBP Community of Practice
The future evolution of the VBP Community of Practice to support improving patient outcomes for the money spent
- Veronique Bertrand – UniHA cooperative des acheteurs hospitaliers
The total cost of care focus as a major VBP building block
- Sophie Carlier – DGOS (General Directorate of the Health Offering) – French Ministry of Health and Prevention
PHARE hospitals procurement transformation program embracing innovative public procurement methods based on value
- Richard Charter – Alira Health
On behalf of ANZICS, the Australian and New Zealand Intensive Care Society, featuring a beginners guide to improve sustainability in the ICU
- Jennifer Clawson – BCG
The patient priority - Measuring and delivering outcome that matter to patients
- Lauren Field – NHS Supply Chain
Introducing the University Hospitals of North Midlands featuring the key lessons and results on the CAUTI project aimed at reducing catheter associated urinary tract infections
- Giovanni Gorgoni – EUREGHA and AReSS Puglia
Partnerships to improve efficiency and quality of healthcare in European regions
- Prof. Nick Guldemand – Leiden University
Health service provider network dynamics in the creation of value: the implications for procurement
- Prof. Hamish Laing – Swansea University and Value-Based Health & Care Academy
Re-imagining value from within - How for medtech suppliers to succeed in partnering with health systems
- Verena Voelter – 5P
It takes 5 to tango - From competition to cooperation in health care
- Speaker to be defined – Roche Diagnostics
The value of diagnostic information – a practical case example from the NHS Wales
- Ingmar de Gooijer
Conference host and moderator